4.3. EMPLOYEES RECEIVING COMPLAINTS

Employees receiving complaints have the following role and responsibilities:

- inform the party lodging the complaint of how complaints can be lodged, when they should be lodged and what information is required
- provide the complainant with information about any support or assistance available to assist them in lodging their complaint

- maintain confidentiality
- keep appropriate records
- forward complaints to more senior employees, including the Principal, as appropriate
- Not victimise or act in reprisal against the complainant, respondent or any person associated with them.

5. PARENTAL / VOLUNTEER COMPLAINTS

If a parent or volunteer makes a complaint to a member of staff, it should be dealt with quickly and honestly by the staff member if they feel confident to do so.

If the staff member does not feel confident about handling the complaint, they should consult the Principal or Deputy.

If the complaint is about an area that lies outside a staff member's responsibility, they should report it to the Principal and/or Deputy immediately.

Matters incapable of resolution at a particular level should be referred to the appropriate senior person, with parents kept informed of the action being taken.

Senior staff will recognise when issues need to go straight to the Principal, with whom the responsibility for most complaints lie.

If a parent wishes to go straight to the Principal with their concerns, this should be respected. However, it should be explained that the Principal might not be able to respond until they have consulted the staff members who can help.

The Principal will share serious complaints with the Chairperson of the Board. If a serious complaint is made about the Principal, parents are encouraged to write directly to the Chairperson of the Board board@riverschool.com.au

In the case of written responses to a complaint, the Principal should be consulted before the response is sent. The Principal is to be forwarded and cc'ed into all correspondence involving complaints. Copies of all emails should be printed and given to the Principal.

The person handling the complaint must be clear about the nature of the complaint before responding. If it is not immediately obvious:

- The parent or volunteer may need more time to explain
- They could be asked to put their complaint in writing
- It may be helpful to discuss the process and possible outcomes.

5.1. COMPLAINTS will BE HANDLED SERIOUSLY

It is the policy of the school that all complaints will be acknowledged immediately, or within five working days if the matter is complex. Parents will be kept informed about what is happening to their concern or complaint, and, if a more detailed response is needed, by what date it will be received. All issues will be dealt with as quickly as possible.

6. EMPLOYEE COMPLAINTS

Complaints related to school matters or concerns between employees may be dealt with under this policy following the Complaints Procedure — point 9.

An employee making a complaint against another staff member must lodge it with the Principal or Deputy.

Employee complaints involving, e.g. school policies, compliance, administrative procedures, supervision and assessment must be made in writing and lodged with the Principal. The Principal will follow the Complaints Procedure — point 9, to deal with the complaint.

7. MANAGING COMPLAINTS

When a complaint is lodged with the school, the following processes will be implemented:

- promptly acknowledge receipt of the complaint
- a record of the complaint will be made in the Complaints Register
- the complaint may be shared with teachers, staff and/or the School Board if appropriate
- confidentiality and privacy will be maintained as much as possible
- complaints will be addressed in a timely manner.

8. RECORDING

A register for recording complaints and the process is kept in the Principal's office. It is important that details of the complaint be recorded accurately as:

- it may become the cause of legal action in the future
- patterns in the record may indicate a need for additional action; and
- the Principal should be able to check the ~~log~~ register and report on it regularly to the School Board as appropriate.

The ~~log~~ register should contain the following information:

- date when the complaint was raised
- name of complainant
- clear statement of what is concerning the complainant/s
- member/s of staff handling the issue
- written & dated records of all meetings, emails and phone conversations
- statement of outcome / resolution.

All files are confidential and are only to be accessed by members of school staff in the presence of the Principal. The files should contain simple but clear notes of all conversations with complainants about any source of dissatisfaction. This applies to friendly chats and to telephone conversations, as misunderstandings easily arise.

9. COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

9.1. LODGING A COMPLAINT

All complaints should be raised with the school in the first instance. This supports the creation and maintenance of a healthy school culture free from gossip and behaviours that negatively affect our loving and supportive school community. Further, raising concerns with the school in the first instance allows complaints and concerns to be dealt with effectively and efficiently.

Last review date: March 2021

Complaints can be lodged in the following ways:

- by phone
- in person
- in writing

It is preferable in all circumstances, for any written complaint to be followed by discussion, in person or by phone. This allows for greater clarity regarding the concern and the action to be taken.

When lodging a complaint, it is important to:

- provide complete and factual information in a timely manner
- deliver complaints in a calm and reasoned manner
- avoid making frivolous or vexatious complaints
- approach complaints from a position of compassion, community and restoration

It is important to be aware that when making a complaint about a member of staff, in most instances, the staff member will be informed of the complaint as part of the process in addressing the concern.

At any time throughout the process of lodging a complaint or concern, the complainant will be given the option of having a support person present.

9.2. DISCUSSING YOUR COMPLAINT WITH A CLASSROOM TEACHER

If the complaint is with the child's teacher or relates to an issue concerning a child's experience at school, make a time to see the class teacher as soon as possible. Discuss the concern with the teacher and work together to come to a solution. The teacher will make a record of the concern and report on the meeting to the Principal.

9.3. DISCUSSING YOUR COMPLAINT WITH THE PRINCIPAL

If after approaching your child's teacher your complaint remains unresolved, make an appointment to see the Principal to discuss the issue further. Using a restorative approach, the Principal may facilitate a meeting between the class teacher and the complainant to seek a resolution.

If the complaint relates to more general school matters such as issues relating to school policy or school compliance, the complainant should approach the Principal directly. The Principal may refer the complaint to a delegate such as the Deputy, Business Manager or Chair of the Board, depending on the nature of the complaint.

9.4. LODGING YOUR COMPLAINT WITH THE SCHOOL BOARD

If you have discussed your complaint or concern with the Principal, and still feel that you have not reached a resolution, you have the right to contact the School Board. Complaints should be directed to the Chair of the Board and must:

- be lodged in writing
- clearly outline the nature of your complaint
- detail the steps you have taken to try and resolve the issue
- include your name, address, phone number and email address so the complaint can be followed up.

The School Board will work with the Principal and the complainant to reach a resolution. The Chair of the School Board can be contacted at board@riverschool.com.au

10. RESOLUTION

A number of processes may be put in place to ensure that any complaints are resolved in a timely manner that is acceptable to all school community members involved.

The River School follows the principles of Restorative Practice and all processes and procedures regarding complaints align with the school's Neohumanist philosophy. When resolving disputes, we approach all complaints from a position of compassion and understanding that all situations and concerns must be managed individually with love and respect for all parties.

Complainants may be satisfied a situation has been resolved by any of the following:

- knowing that changes have been made, and that matters will be different in future
- knowing that the school is now alert to a possible problem
- feeling that their concern has been considered seriously
- an outcome which may be different from the one they sought, but which they perceive to be well-considered
- a considered letter
- an apology.

11. CONFIDENTIALITY

Confidentiality is an important issue for students, parents, volunteers and staff. It is essential that any complaint be treated in a confidential manner and with respect.

It should be made clear to all concerned that it is the school's policy that complaints made by parents should not rebound adversely on their children and similarly that complaints raised by students should not rebound on them or on other students.

The question of confidentiality should be discussed sensitively and on an individual basis with the complainant/s and the school's policy should be carefully explained.

Members of staff are rightly concerned that they should know about complaints that might be damaging to their reputation. Such complaints will be known only to themselves and to those who have to be consulted. The staff member, against whom the complaint has been made, can choose a colleague, who is not involved, to be their support person.

If there is a situation involving the police, the Principal, will take responsibility for action in the school and the Board Chairperson will be informed as soon as possible.

12. ANONYMOUS COMPLAINTS

Anonymous complaints may be where there is no indication of either name or address, or where the complainants say that they do not wish to be identified. They may come from members of the public, parents, students, volunteers and employees.

Complaints from the public about the behaviour of a group of students will be dealt with on a general basis, with reminders to all about the school's expectations. The school's Student Behaviour Management Policy and Bullying Prevention Policy will be consulted as required.

It may be possible to deal with a complaint without naming individuals. However, even if names are not given, the source of the complaint must be clear. Depending on the nature of the complaint and on the circumstances, it may be impractical to investigate without identifying the member of staff or the child – it may also be in the interest of the child or staff member to do so.

A complainant may request their name be withheld when making a complaint involving a staff member. In resolution discussions with the staff member concerned, the Principal may honour this request if the complainant name is not required to reach a satisfactory outcome.

Complainants should be encouraged to give their names and should be given reassurance on the issue of confidentiality. If they persist in wishing to remain anonymous, it is at the Principal's discretion as to what action, if any, should be taken, depending on the nature of the complaint.

Anonymous complaints will be recorded.

Anonymous allegations about child abuse will be handled in accordance with the school's Child Protection Policy.

13. INTRACTABLE COMPLAINTS

There may be a small minority of persistent or aggressive complainants who will never be satisfied, whatever the school does. The school may even discover on investigation that the complaint was without foundation or motivated by malice. Nevertheless, it is wise to treat all complaints seriously and to follow the procedures.

Most complaints can be resolved if approached positively. If a complaint becomes intractable, it may be due to its nature or to the way in which it was handled.

There are different stages of action to be taken with intractable complaints:

13.1. REFERRAL TO THE CHAIRPERSON OF THE SCHOOL BOARD

In most cases, the procedure will be that the Principal refers the matter to the Chairperson of the School Board and informs the complainant that this stage has been reached. However, a situation may arise where the complainant feels the Principal has mishandled their complaint. In these circumstances, the complainant can write directly to the Chairperson of the Board board@riverschool.com.au

The Chairperson will discuss the matter fully with the Principal and be provided with relevant documentation. If a briefing is required from a member of staff, this will occur in the presence of the Principal.

The Chairperson will respond to the complaint notifying them that he/she is reviewing the matter, asking them if they wish to add anything further and providing a date by which they may expect a response.

The Chairperson may be able to offer a new approach to the matter, and this may satisfy the complainant. The Chairperson's response will be clear and detailed. The Chairperson may offer a meeting if issues remain unresolved.

13.2. REFERRAL TO A CONCILIATION COMMITTEE

The school may establish a Conciliation Committee, using a Restorative Practice approach, if resolution by the Principal and the Chairperson of the Board has failed. The Conciliation Committee will be composed of a facilitator, independent of the school, and up to four other members, two of whom will be members of the School Board (excluding the Chair).

The Chairperson of the Board, in consultation with the Principal, decides when to refer a complaint to the Conciliation Committee, and invites the facilitator to call a meeting.

The Chairman has no further involvement until the facilitator reports back at the end of the committee's deliberations.

13.3. MEETING WITH THE CONCILIATION COMMITTEE

The meeting will consist of:

- up to five Committee members, including the facilitator and at least one Board director;
- the Principal, and possibly a key member of staff; and
- the complainant/s, who may bring a support person.

The complainant and the Principal will be asked in advance whether there are any papers they would like to have considered at the meeting, bearing in mind the need for all to keep the proceedings confidential. The papers will be copied and distributed before the meeting.

The facilitator will emphasise that the aim is to reach a positive conclusion and will invite first the complainant, then the Principal to speak. After this, the facilitator will encourage questions and general discussion.

The facilitator may find it helpful at some point to invite the Principal, the complainant and their support person to withdraw from the discussion for a time, leaving the Committee alone.

Last review date: March 2021

If more time is required, it may be necessary to convene a second meeting. If so, Committee members must commit themselves to attend, as continuity is essential.

If a positive solution is reached, the facilitator will summarise the outcome and confirm the nature of the agreement before the meeting disperses. The agreement will be recorded, copied and circulated as soon as possible.

At the end of the Committee's deliberations, the facilitator will make a full report to the Board Chairperson and inform the complainant that this is being done. The Chairperson would be advised to endorse the Committee's decision.

14. THE ROLE OF OUR PARENTS AND FRIENDS ASSOCIATION (P&F)

Each class has a P&F representative. One of the roles of the P&F representative is to bring general parent concerns, questions and ideas that affect a whole class or the school to the Parent Committee meeting which is attended by the Principal.

The P&F is not an avenue for individual complaints concerning students, staff or parents.

15. IMPLEMENTATION

The River School is committed to raising awareness of the process for resolving complaints at the school, including by the development and implementation of this policy and related procedures and via the clear support and promotion of the policy and procedures.

The River School is also committed to appropriately training relevant employees (especially senior staff) on how to resolve complaints in line with this policy and the related procedures.

The River School will keep appropriate records of complaints, will monitor complaints and their resolution and will report on a high-level basis to the school Board on complaint handling at the school.

The River School will act to encourage students, parents and employees to contribute to a healthy school culture where complaints are resolved with as little formality and disruption as possible.
